The Village of Breedsville is in the process of reviewing and revising all of its ordinances. The Village invites suggestions and comments regarding current ordinances, changes to the ordinances, and the possibility of adopting new ordinances. Public input is crucial to this process. Comments may be made in person at Village meetings, occurring on the first Tuesday of each month, by mail, or by email to the Village Offices. Current ordinances can be reviewed on the Village website: breedsville.civicweb.org The Village welcomes your participation in this process.
